BUCKMAN FOR CONGRESS

All indications point to the renomination of Hon. C. B. Buckman as the republican candidate for congress from the Sixth district by a large majority. His first term in congress has proved him to be a representative of the people and for the people and his official acts have been of such a character that they bear the closest scrutiny. So faithfully has Congressman Buckman served his constituency that no criticism from his own party nor from any of the opposing political faith has been made, and truly a man who can fill a position of this character in such an acceptable manner should be returned regardless of the fact that there are other aspirants, for a man who has been tried and found not wanting is the man to tie to rather than experiment with one who is an unknown quantity as far as legislative experience goes. For the same reason that you would retain a faithful servant with whom you could find no fault in preference to going out and securing the services of a stranger simply because the stranger desired the position, so you should consider the election of a congressman and cast your vote for the sitting member, C. B. Buckman, who has served you well and faithfully and who desires to be retained in the position.

Mr. Buckman has conducted a clean, energetic and thorough campaign and the results attained are certainly pleasing to him and his friends for the indications point to his renomination by a large majority. In various parts of the district are republicans who two years ago were opposed to him but who have been so well pleased with his first term record that they are now shoulder to shoulder pushing his campaign along and giving him their hearty support. In his home city and county every element of the republican party has been united on him and he will receive the solid republican vote there at the primaries tomorrow. In Todd, Sherburne and Douglas counties which returned majorities against him two years ago conditions are such that it is confidently expected they will be carried for Buckman tomorrow. Crow Wing county owes it to Mr. Buckman to give him a good endorsement. He is practically a home man, living in the adjoining county of Morrison, and the interests of the two counties are identical. Morrison and Crow Wing counties are in the same legislative district and Morrison county has always stood loyally by the republican candidates from Crow Wing and always will. If we are to succeed along republican lines we must present a solid front and work in harmony. There is no reason why the republicans of this city and county should do otherwise than cast their ballots for C. B. Buckman, and there is no reason to expect they will, but there should be no faltering in the campaign and the efforts in his behalf should be kept up until the polls close tomorrow night.

C. B. Buckman deserves the endorsement of a renomination at the hands of the republican party and we believe he will receive it.

Genoa correspondent reports that he had traveled to Nice in order to report the following uncensored dispatch:

"The situation throughout Italy is most serious. At Rome the council of ministers has called out two classes of reserves in order to reinforce the authorities. Premier Giolitti has postponed a journey to Raccanigi which he had intended to make for the purpose of extending his personal congratulations on the birth of the crown prince. At Porto Novo crowds of people stopped the railway trains, many children lying down before the engines.

"The troops were powerless. One person was killed and several persons were injured in a collision with soldiers at Genoa, where strikers have hindered the departure of trains. The tracks have been torn up at Rivera.
All was quiet at Milan on Sunday night."

Rome, Sept. 19.—The mayor of Turin has telegraphed to Signor Giolitti, president of the council and minister of the interior, in the name of the Socialist organization, expressing the hope of the workmen that intervention of troops in peaceful struggle between capital and labor be avoided.

Signor Giolitti instantly replied by telegraph that for three years as minister of the interior he had constantly supported the policy of absolute liberty to the men to strike and it was not the duty of the government to intervene, adding that he intended to follow the same principles while he remained in power.

Forecast—Fair and warmer.
Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp from 7 a. m. yesterday morning to 7 a. m. this morning)—Maximum 60 above zero; minimum 47 above zero.

Vote for Buckman.

Give a home man your support by voting for C. B. Buckman for congress.

DR. AMES will have to stand trial again for his alleged misconduct while mayor of Minneapolis.

THE state campaign will be opened as soon as the primary election is over, and it bids fair to be a warm number.

If you are an early riser you can vote at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning, but it is not expected that the booths will be crowded at that hour.

THE candidates who have no opposition at the primaries will know how it is themselves when it comes to the general election.

CAST your vote tomorrow for a man for congress who will look after the interests of this section of the Sixth district—vote for Buckman.

THE republican ticket placed in nomination at the primaries tomorrow should receive the hearty support of every loyal party man for election.

It is a true saying that the man who goes back on a friend and benefactor is a poor man to tie to—and this is applicable in both business and politics.

AFTER the dust of the battle tomorrow has subsided will come the contest for the city offices, the nominating convention for which will probably be held early in October.

THE Motley Mercury considers John T. Frater, candidate for the state senate, a very strong man for the position and predicts a large vote for him in that vicinity at the election.

THE contest for the various places on the ticket tomorrow should be a friendly one and all should agree, no matter what the outcome is, to support the successful candidates. There should be no sulking in the tents.

THE democrats and a few disgruntled republicans who have joined forces with them are leaving no stone unturned to accomplish the defeat of Bob. Dunn for governor but their efforts will fail. Dunn will be the next governor of Minnesota and the people of Minnesota will never regret putting him there.

It is freely predicted that the vote tomorrow will be considerably less than it was at the primaries throughout the county two years ago. However that may be it will not come from a lack of knowledge of the situation for there is hardly a voter in the county whose support has not been personally solicited by the various candidates, or their representatives, from congressman to coroner.

AN X opposite the name of C. B. Buckman, republican candidate for congress, will be a vote cast for an able and influential man. He has held one term and has been an honor to his district. He is the home candidate, and a voter who will not stand by his home interests is certainly out of joint with himself. Vote for Buckman.

It's tough on Parker but nevertheless a fact that the Minnesota democratic state central committee have repudiated their presidential candidate and instructed their spellbinders to shout for Roosevelt for president and Johnson for governor, thereby hoping to gain votes from republicans for John Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor. The scheme is too apparent to be of any benefit to them.

SO DIFFERENT

Lots of Claims Like this but so Different—Local Proof is What Brainerd People Want.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share.

Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.

Statements from far away places. What people say in Florida.

Public expression from California. Ofttimes good indorsement there.

But of little service here at home. Brainerd people want local proof.

The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home indorsement counts.

It disarms the skeptic; is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a case of it.

Mrs. S. Brain of 125 South 9th street says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be spoken of in too high terms. I suffered greatly from my back, the symptoms showing unmistakably that the kidneys were at fault. The secretions from those organs were scanty and caused some pain, the aching in my back was constant and exceedingly distressing. When my husband brought me Doan's Kidney Pills I was much in need of relief. I used them and in a comparatively short time the pain had disappeared and the improvement in my condition was general. The kidneys were quickly restored to health and performed their functions naturally."

VOTE for Buckman.

GIVE a home man your support by voting for C. B. Buckman for congress.

DR. AMES will have to stand trial again for his alleged misconduct while mayor of Minneapolis.

THE state campaign will be opened as soon as the primary election is over, and it bids fair to be a warm number.

IF you are an early riser you can vote at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning, but it is not expected that the booths will be crowded at that hour.

THE candidates who have no opposition at the primaries will know how it is themselves when it comes to the general election.

CASE your vote tomorrow for a man for congress who will look after the interests of this section of the Sixth district—vote for Buckman.

THE republican ticket placed in nomination at the primaries tomorrow should receive the hearty support of every loyal party man for election.

IT is a true saying that the man who goes back on a friend and benefactor is a poor man to tie to—and this is applicable in both business and politics.

AFTER the dust of the battle tomorrow has subsided will come the contest for the city offices, the nominating convention for which will probably be held early in October.

THE Motley Mercury considers John T. Frater, candidate for the state senate, a very strong man for the position and predicts a large vote for him in that vicinity at the election.

THE contest for the various places on the ticket tomorrow should be a friendly one and all should agree, no matter what the outcome is, to support the successful candidates. There should be no sulking in the tents.

THE democrats and a few disgruntled republicans who have joined forces with them are leaving no stone unturned to accomplish the defeat of Bob. Dunn for governor but their efforts will fail. Dunn will be the next governor of Minnesota and the people of Minnesota will never regret putting him there.

IT is freely predicted that the vote tomorrow will be considerably less than it was at the primaries throughout the county two years ago. However that may be it will not come from a lack of knowledge of the situation for there is hardly a voter in the county whose support has not been personally solicited by the various candidates, or their representatives, from congressman to coroner.

AN X opposite the name of C. B. Buckman, republican candidate for congress, will be a vote cast for an able and influential man. He has held one term and has been an honor to his district. He is the home candidate, and a voter who will not stand by his home interests is certainly out of joint with himself. Vote for Buckman.

IT's tough on Parker but nevertheless a fact that the Minnesota democratic state central committee have repudiated their presidential candidate and instructed their spellbinders to shout for Roosevelt for president and Johnson for governor, thereby hoping to gain votes from republicans for John Johnson, the democratic candidate for governor. The scheme is too apparent to be of any benefit to them.

SERVICES WERE VERY IMPRESSIVE

St. Francis' Church Crowded to Over Flowing Both Morning and Evening Services

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Was Administered to 227 by Bishop McGolrick—Bishop Also Preached.

The services at St. Francis' church yesterday were the most impressive since the organization of this parish and the day will long be remembered.

The event of the visit of Bishop McGolrick to this city was in itself reason enough make the day an important one, but the fact that 227 persons were confirmed made the event of unusual interest.

The services in the morning at 10:30 o'clock were especially interesting. The choir rendered Mallard's mass. Solemn high mass was celebrated with Father Floyd as the celebrant, Father Johns as deacon, Father Patt as sub-deacon and Father D. W. Lynch as master of ceremonies. After the solemn high mass Bishop McGolrick administered the sacrament of confirmation to the large class and the ceremony was very impressive and beautiful. Those who were confirmed marched up to the altar two by two. The audience was very large, nearly half of the number present being compelled to stand.

In the evening solemn vespers were celebrated. Father Johns was the celebrant, Father Scheimer, deacon, Father Patt, sub-deacon and Father D. W. Lynch master of ceremonies.

Bishop McGolrick assisted at the throne at both services.

At the morning service Bishop McGolrick spoke, the general trend of his sermon being the relation of the parent to the child and how the child should be trained to go. It was an excellent sermon and was enjoyed by the vast throng very much. He congratulated Rev. D. W. Lynch and also thanked the ladies for their work in decorating.

Father Floyd, of Duluth, preached last night on "The Duties of the Parent to the Child." He is a forcible talker and held his audience spell bound throughout.

The day was an unusually gratifying one to Rev. D. W. Lynch, of St. Francis, and his work has endeared him more closely to the hearts of his parishioners than ever before.

This is rainy weather. Don't you need a water shed coat? I can show you something nice in that line.

Funeral Services Over Remains of Late

Dr. V. F. Rounds Held this Morning at the First M. E. Church

The funeral services over the remains of the late Dr. V. F. Rounds were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First M. E. church. The members of the Odd Fellows order in this city turned out in a body and escorted the remains from the house to the church. At the church Rev. H. W. Knowles preached an eloquent and impressive sermon.

The remains were taken to Verndale this afternoon for burial accompanied by the members of the family and several Odd Fellows.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"A FATAL WEDDING."

It will be recalled that when "The Fatal Wedding" was the attraction at the Brainerd opera house last year those who saw it were very much pleased and they can attest as to its merits.

The plot is a powerful one, and deals with the adventures of a scheming woman who, assisted by a male accomplice, ventures the ruin of a happy family, and the separation of a wife from husband and children, in order that she can contract a marriage with the husband, and thereby gain his fortune. She is prevented from doing this, however, by the timely interference of two characters, a Frenchman and an Irish servant woman, who in their respective parts make no end of amusement for the audience. An unusually strong cast will interpret the play, and the scenic effects are the most realistic ever attempted in a melodrama. One scene in particular, that of the famous Palisades at night, showing the counterfeiters' den, gives a great effect, and with the many revolving scenes go to make up as strong a scenic production as has yet been witnessed in this city.

The sale of seats for this attraction will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

"THE HEART OF CHICAGO."

A great success of the melodramatic world, "The Heart of Chicago", by Lincoln J. Carter will be the attraction on Thursday evening, Sept. 22. Free as it is in superlative sensationalism and abounding as it does in love, humor and all the rest that goes to make real and stage life alike entertainment, the story of Chicago life is told behind footlights and furnishes varying entertainment for the lovers of melodrama. The scenic features are good, but this does not detract from the fine, well balanced company that portray their various characters with a snap and vim that never fails to hold throughout the play. The fire scene, the view from the Masonic Temple, Chicago's once famous sky scraper and the engine scene in the fourth act, furnish a trio of scenic features well worth seeing. It will be repeated with the same cast, same scenery and effects that was seen here before.

Among those engaged in the strongly well balanced cast are Mr. John T. Nicholson, the young leading man who plays the part of John Ames, Miss Katherine Marney, Mr. Clyde Hess, Miss Emily Lessing, Mr. Chas. Wells, Miss Blanche Boyer and several other notable artists are with the attraction.

OLD MAN SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

While Out Hunting With His Wife and Daughter Five Miles from Pine River

THE OLD GENTLEMAN MAY DIE

Gun Fell through Hole in Wagon Box and was Discharged by the Jar.

C. N. Shoggrech, a well known resident of Pine River, met with an accident yesterday afternoon which it is thought will result in his death.

He was out hunting with his wife and daughter and the gun was in the wagon box in front of the seat. The daughter got out of the wagon to open a gate and as she did so the gun fell through a hole in the wagon box and on account of the jar was discharged. The old man who was in the front seat got the full charge near left shoulder and arm.

The injured man was hurried to Pine River and he was nearly dead from the loss of blood when he got there. He revived shortly afterwards, however, and held his own through the night, but the chances for his recovery are very slim.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"A FATAL WEDDING."

It will be recalled that when "The Fatal Wedding" was the attraction at the Brainerd opera house last year those who saw it were very much pleased and they can attest as to its merits.

The plot is a powerful one, and deals with the adventures of a scheming woman who, assisted by a male accomplice, ventures the ruin of a happy family, and the separation of a wife from husband and children, in order that she can contract a marriage with the husband, and thereby gain his fortune. She is prevented from doing this, however, by the timely interference of two characters, a Frenchman and an Irish servant woman, who in their respective parts make no end of amusement for the audience. An unusually strong cast will interpret the play, and the scenic effects are the most realistic ever attempted in a melodrama. One scene in particular, that of the famous Palisades at night, showing the counterfeiter's den, gives a great effect, and with the many revolving scenes go to make up as strong a scenic production as has yet been witnessed in this city.

The sale of seats for this attraction will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

"THE HEART OF CHICAGO."

A great success of the melodramatic world, "The Heart of Chicago", by Lincoln J. Carter will be the attraction on Thursday evening, Sept. 22. Free as it is in superlative sensationalism and abounding as it does in love, humor and all the rest that goes to make real and stage life alike entertainment, the story of Chicago life is told behind footlights and furnishes varying entertainment for the lovers of melodrama. The scenic features are good, but this does not detract from the fine, well balanced company that portray their various characters with a snap and vim that never fails to hold throughout the play. The fire scene, the view from the Masonic Temple, Chicago's once famous sky scraper and the engine scene in the fourth act, furnish a trio of scenic features well worth seeing. It will be repeated with the same cast, same scenery and effects that was seen here before.

Among those engaged in the strongly well balanced cast are Mr. John T. Nicholson, the young leading man who plays the part of John Ames. Miss Katherine Marney, Mr. Clyde Hess, Miss Emily Lessing, Mr. Chas. Wells, Miss Blanche Boyer and several other notable artists are with the attraction.

ACCIDENTALLY

THE OLD GENTLEMAN MAY DIE

Gun Fell through Hole in Wagon Box and was Discharged by the Jar.

C. N. Sheggreen, a well known resident of Pine River, met with an accident yesterday afternoon which it is thought will result in his death.

He was out hunting with his wife and daughter and the gun was in the wagon box in front of the seat. The daughter got out of the wagon to open a gate and as she did so the gun fell through a hole in the wagon box and on account of the jar was discharged. The old man who was in the front seat got the full charge near left shoulder and arm.

The injured man was hurried to Pine River and he was nearly dead from the loss of blood when he got there. He revived shortly afterwards, however, and held his own through the night, but the chances for his recovery are very slim.

ADVANCE ON MUKDEN

ARMIES OF OYAMA BEGIN THE ATTACK UPON RUSSIAN POSITIONS THERE.

TRYING TO CUT OFF RETREAT

GENERAL KUROKI ENGAGED IN A WIDE TURNING MOVEMENT ABOVE MUKDEN.

According to a dispatch from Tokyo to a London paper, the Japanese are rigorously shelling the Russian positions at Mukden, preparatory to a general advance, and are endeavoring by a wide turning movement to cut off General Kuropatkin's retreat to Harbin. The Japanese armies are disposed in the same relative position as at Liaoyang, which means that General Kuroki is the man who is trying to cut off Kuropatkin.

A general assault is thought to be in progress at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg continues without official confirmation of the report that the Japanese are advancing north of Mukden, and the statement is therefore not credited at the Russian capital. General Sakharoff reports that there was no fighting in the vicinity of Mukden on Friday or Saturday, but notes the arrival of reinforcements for the Japanese along the whole line of the Japanese front. The interval of quiet has afforded General Kuropatkin opportunity to strengthen his defenses and he has received large reinforcements since his retreat to Mukden.

There are indications of a revival of the struggle for the possession of Port Arthur.

ATTACKING RUSSIANS

JAPANESE FORCES SHELL POSITIONS OF CZAR'S ARMY AT MUKDEN.

Mukden, Sept. 19.—Doubt of Oyama's intention in respect to the advance on this place was dispelled Sunday morning when a strong Japanese force crossed south of the Sha river at a point eighteen miles southwest of here shortly before dawn and, advancing rapidly seven miles in this direction, began shelling the Russian positions from the town of Changshing.

The Japanese center and right at noon rested on a line running from Changshing east to Chuchiatun, which latter place is six miles northwest of Taiping mountain.

Nodzu's troops are marching north through a broad valley between the limestone region and the railroad. The Japanese left, under Oku, early Sunday morning moved from Shih to south of the Sha and began building pontoon bridges east of the railway for transportation of field pieces across the river.

Heavy skirmishes have taken place.

London, Sept. 19.—It is asserted in a dispatch from Tokyo to the Express that the Japanese are vigorously shelling the Russian positions at Mukden, preparatory to a general advance, and endeavoring by a wide turning movement to cut off General Kuropatkin's retreat. The Japanese armies, the dispatch adds, are disposed in the same relative positions as in the fighting before Liaoyang.

ANOTHER GRAND ASSAULT.

Believed That the Japs Will Soon Make It Upon Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Sept. 19.—Local students of the military situation at Port Arthur, basing their deduction upon conditions there, are of the opinion that another grand assault is either occurring or about to occur. This opinion is based on the Russian bombardment of the Russian stronghold that occurred on Sept. 16, for such a bombardment marks the usual prelude to an assault; on the arrival here of important messengers from Port Arthur at a time when the running of the blockade is extremely perilous; on a recent statement that the Japanese siege works are completed and on reports from Port Dalny that an assault was expected to take place in a few days. These reports were received last week.

In addition to the foregoing there is the common knowledge that the Japanese realize that their continued inactivity increases the resisting power of the Russian garrison and their consequent desire to make such periods of inactivity as brief as possible.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR OYAMA.

Ethire Front of Japanese Army is Strengthened.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—General Sakharoff has reported to the general staff, under date of Sept. 17, as follows:

"The Manchurian army was nowhere engaged on Sept. 16 or 17.

"The arrival of considerable reinforcements is noticeable at the advance posts along the whole of the enemy's front, and especially near the village of Bianupuzha, and east of the railway toward the Yental mines."

It is announced from Mukden that both the Russian and the Japanese have promised to respect the tombs and palaces there.

EARLY FIGHTING EXPECTED.

Opposing Armies Recovered From Recent Hard Fighting.

Mukden, Sept. 19.—The armies having recovered from the effects of the recent fighting before Liaoyang, an early development of the situation may be expected. A mysterious movement eastward is on foot on the part of bands of Chinese suitable for military service.

RUSSIANS ARE SKEPTICAL.

Doubt Reports of Japanese Advance Upon Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The reports that General Kuroki is pushing on northeast of Mukden are not borne out by official telegrams that have been received here. According to the latest advices the Japanese forces continue to occupy Bianupuzha and Yental. A decisive advance in the direction of Mukden is, therefore, not expected to occur for some days. Meanwhile indications increase of the probability of the Japanese meeting with resistance. The Russian forces at Mukden undoubtedly are very large and every day's delay enables the Russian commander-in-chief to perfect his defenses. A telegram from Mukden announces the arrival of an immense train filled with convalescents returning to duty. This may be regarded as good evidence of a large concentration of troops at Mukden.

The same correspondent, describing scenes at Tie pass, notes extraordinary animation there. The great concourse of visitors there and the fact that theatrical performances and open air concerts are of daily occurrence hardly indicates that the town is expecting an immediate attack.

Dispatches from Vladivostok and Sakhalin, make no mention of developments there. The citizens of Vladivostok scout the idea of a siege and many are returning from their country villas.

The disarming of the Lena at San Francisco is accepted here as having been inevitable in view of the considerable length of time required to repair the vessel's boilers.

The question of the disposal of the Lena's crew is no nearer a solution, so far as the admiralty and the foreign office are concerned, than it has been, both departments being closed on Sunday.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

RUSSIAN PRINCE RELATES TERRIBLE TALES OF FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, Sept. 19.—According to Lieutenant Prince Radzivil of the Russian army who reached here Sunday from Port Arthur, bearing dispatches from General Stoessel, the commander-in-chief of the forces of the Russian stronghold, to General Kuropatkin, the temper of the belligerents at Port Arthur has reached an absolutely merciless stage.

Prince Radzivil served with the British in the Boer war and he says that until he became aware of the state of affairs at Port Arthur he had no idea that war could be so horrible.

It was set forth in these dispatches some weeks ago that serious suspicions were entertained by both belligerents, that the other was misusing the Red Cross flag. These suspicions have been increased by the commission of various acts by the soldiers of both armies, until now even flags of truce or surrender are not respected by either side.

Prince Radzivil declares that the men of both armies are absolutely venomous in their antagonism. General Stoessel has addressed his garrison saying that the present mood of the Japanese indicates clearly the necessity of resisting them to the last drop of Russian blood, because if the Japanese soldiers entered the fortress it undoubtedly would be impossible for their officers to control them and prevent a massacre. For this reason General Stoessel is making no objections to civilians leaving Port Arthur.

In consequence of the fact that flags of truce are ignored, numbers of Japanese dead, who have been lying on the slopes of the hills of the northeast defenses for weeks past, are still unburied and the stench in Port Arthur from decomposing bodies when the wind is in the right direction, is almost unendurable.

Russians Ignore White Flag.

In the course of the assaults which took place in the four last days of August, two companies of Japanese soldiers, according to Prince Radzivil, found themselves at the mercy of the Russians and hoisted a white flag. To this, however, the Russians paid no attention and continued to volley rapidly into the helpless ranks of the enemy. In the meantime Japanese troops in the rear of the companies that had raised the white flag saw what their comrades had done and expressed their disapproval of the surrender by firing into their rear. As a result of this fire from friend and foe, 600 men were annihilated. The dead lay among the decomposing bodies of previous assaults. For days afterward the wounded men in this area raised fluttering handkerchiefs in their hands in pleas for help, but the Russians were afraid to venture out to give succor. Within a week the army had made its last unregarded prayer for help and the shambles was a quiet but ghastly field of horror. Among the heaps of dead the prince saw two soldiers, one a Russian and the other a Japanese, lying locked in a death embrace. The teeth of the Japanese were sunk in the Russian's throat while the Russian had forced two of his fingers into the eye sockets of his antagonist.

The prince says the stories in circulation concerning the shortage of ammunition and provisions at Port Arthur are not true. There is an abundance of ammunition for both large and small arms and plenty of preserved food. The use of Chinese shells was merely a saving measure.

Prince Radzivil says one company of Russians were wiped out in an outpost fight and also says the Japanese are using explosive bullets at Port Arthur. The bodies of 2,600 Japanese soldiers, he says, lie between forts No. 2 and 3.

The prince says that a story regarding the attempt of the two Japanese companies to surrender is to the effect that a Japanese battery fired upon the helpless men who then charged the battery, killing General Nogi and several Japanese gunners. This is not confirmed.

Persistent rumors have been received lately to the effect that a successor to General Nogi has arrived at Port Dalny, but this is denied by local Japanese.

DEATH OF BISMARCK

ELDEST SON OF THE IRON CHANCELLOR PASSES AWAY AT FRIEDRICHSRUHE.

THE END WAS NOT PAINFUL.

PRINCE HERBERT PEACEFULLY PASSES FROM LIFE INTO ETERNAL SLEEP.

Friedrichsruhe, Sept. 19.—Prince Herbert Bismarck died Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock. The end was painless.

Since he ceased to be foreign minister on the retirement of his father, in 1890, Prince Herbert Bismarck had taken part in public affairs only as a member of the reichstag. His attitude had been that of a man not appreciated by his sovereign and who was waiting in the background for an opportunity to resume his career.

His delivery as a parliamentary speaker improved year by year. He always declined to join any political group, steadfastly calling himself an independent. His haughty and imperious manners in early life, when he was ever conscious of the fact that he was the son of the most powerful statesman in Europe, softened in later life.

Prince Bismarck's father trained him for his chancellorship of the German empire and advanced him rapidly in the diplomatic service until at the age of forty, he was minister of foreign affairs, in which position he took part in nearly every important transaction.

An incident that nearly wrecked Prince Herbert's career and that caused the old chancellor great annoyance was Prince (then count) Herbert's elopement with Princess Carlotta Beuthen, the wife of Prince Karl, the head of that distinguished Silesian house. The princess was of the Hatzfeldt family and young Bismarck at the time was his father's private secretary. Count Herbert lived with the princess in Southern Italy for a few weeks, and then at the command of his father returned to Germany. The princess was afterwards divorced and has since died.

The title of Prince Bismarck and the large fortune of the deceased will go to his seven-year-old son Otto.

The late Emperor Frederick gave to Chancellor Bismarck extensive forests at Friedrichsruhe which have since increased in value and the chancellor gave to Prince Herbert $2,400,000 in securities and cash. The estate is now said to be worth $4,000,000, exclusive of the lands.

Prince Bismarck was born in 1819, was the eldest son of the late Prince Otto Bismarck, the great chancellor. His brother William died in 1901. He had only one sister, who is the wife of Count von Rentau. Prince Herbert leaves five children, two girls and three boys.

JAPANESE SPOILS OF WAR.

Vast Quantities of Stores and Ammunition Taken at Liaoyang.

Tokio, Sept. 19.—Marquis Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese forces in the field, telegraphed Sunday that General Oku had reported having captured 13 prisoners at the battle of Liaoyang. He also gave a detailed list of the Russian stores which General Oku captured as follows:

Thirty horses, 2,288 rifles, 127 ammunition wagons, 5,892 rounds of artillery ammunition, 659,830 small arm cartridges, great quantities of timber, flour, rice, forage engineering implements clothing and accoutrements.

The armies under General Kuroki and Nodzu made no prisoners in the fighting before Liaoyang. General Kuroki captured forty horses, 890 rifles, 300 rounds of artillery and 600,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, telegraph apparatus and various miscellaneous implements.

General Nodzu captured 490 rifles, 1,064 rounds of artillery and 27,880 rounds of rifle ammunition, 3 heliographs, telephones, tools and large quantities of foodstuffs and timber.

General Oku captured sufficient timber to construct railroad depots.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE IN OHIO.

Two Men Probably Fatally Injured by an Explosion.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 19.—During a band concert at the corner of Fairmount and Frank streets Sunday evening, a lead pipe loaded with powder or dynamite was exploded with malicious intent, the police believe, and Pasquale Ferrito and Walter Cox were probably fatally injured. Pasquale's back was torn away and Cox had a leg blown off. Rivalry between two bands of the district is said to be the cause for the ill feeling of the bandmen towards each other.

PASSES THE MILLION MARK.

Attendance at the World's Fair Very Heavy Last Week.

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Last week for the first time in the history of the Louisiana Purchase exposition the attendance for the six days exceeded 1,000,000. The record of the admissions for the week were as follows: Monday, Sept. 12, 112,432; Tuesday, 110,616; Wednesday, 134,642; Thursday, 404,350; Friday, 131,111; Saturday, 143,607. Total, 1,027,918. Total admissions to date are 11,022,430.

SEAL POACHER ARRESTED.

Russians Take an Englishman and Sink His Vessel.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—It is announced from Vladivostok that an English seal poacher named Thomson, who took advantage of the war to make the Priboif islands his hunting grounds, has been captured and his schooner sunk. Thomson has been imprisoned at Nikolaievsk.

TYPHOID FEVER PREVALENT.

Minnesota State Board of Health Reports Epidemic.

St. Paul, Sept. 19.—The state board of health is investigating numerous typhoid fever outbreaks in various smaller cities of Minnesota.

St. Cloud, Little Falls, Mankato, Crookston, Breckenridge, Albert Lea, Elbow Lake, Elmore and Eveleth are reporting the largest number of new cases.

The board claims to have the epidemic under control.

ADVANCE ON MUKDEN

ARMIES OF OYAMA BEGIN THE ATTACK UPON RUSSIAN POSITIONS THERE.

TRYING TO CUT OFF RETREAT

GENERAL KUROKI ENGAGED IN A WIDE TURNING MOVEMENT ABOVE MUKDEN.

According to a dispatch from Tokio to a London paper, the Japanese are vigorously shelling the Russian positions at Mukden, preparatory to a general advance, and are endeavoring by a wide turning movement to cut off General Kuropatkin's retreat to Harbin. The Japanese armies are disposed in the same relative position as at Liaoyang, which means that General Kuroki is the man who is trying to cut off Kuropatkin.

A general assault is thought to be in progress at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg continues without official confirmation of the report that the Japanese are advancing north of Mukden, and the statement is therefore not credited at the Russian capital. General Sakharoff reports that there was no fighting in the vicinity of Mukden on Friday or Saturday, but notes the arrival of reinforcements for the Japanese along the whole line of the Japanese front. The interval of quiet has afforded General Kuropatkin opportunity to strengthen his defenses and he has received large reinforcements since his retreat to Mukden.

There are indications of a revival of the struggle for the possession of Port Arthur.

ATTACKING RUSSIANS

JAPANESE FORCES SHELL POSITIONS OF CZAR'S ARMY AT MUKDEN.

Mukden, Sept. 19.—Doubt of Oyama's intention in respect to the advance on this place was dispelled Sunday morning when a strong Japanese force crossed south of the Sha river at a point eighteen miles southwest of here shortly before dawn and, advancing rapidly seven miles in this direction, began shelling the Russian positions from the town of Changshing.

The Japanese center and right at noon rested on a line running from Changshing east to Chuchiatun, which latter place is six miles northwest of Taiping mountain.

Nodzu's troops are marching north through a broad valley between the limestone region and the railroad. The Japanese left, under Oku, early Sunday morning moved from Shihi to south of the Sha and began building pontoon bridges east of the railway for transportation of field pieces across the river.

Heavy skirmishes have taken place.

London, Sept. 19.—It is asserted in a dispatch from Tokio to the Express that the Japanese are vigorously shelling the Russian positions at Mukden, preparatory to a general advance, and endeavoring by a wide turning movement to cut off General Kuropatkin's retreat. The Japanese armies, the dispatch adds, are disposed in the same relative positions as in the fighting before Liaoyang.

ANOTHER GRAND ASSAULT.

Believed That the Japs Will Soon Make It Upon Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Sept. 19.—Local students of the military situation at Port Arthur, basing their deduction upon conditions there, are of the opinion that another grand assault is either occurring at the present time or is imminent. This opinion is based on the heavy bombardment of the Russian stronghold that occurred on Sept. 16, for such a bombardment marks the usual prelude to an assault; on the arrival here of important messengers from Port Arthur at a time when the running of the blockade is extremely perilous; on a recent statement that the Japanese siege works are completed and on reports from Port Dally that an assault was expected to take place in a few days. These reports were received last week.

In addition to the foregoing there is the common knowledge that the Japanese realize that their continued inactivity increases the resisting power of the Russian garrison and their consequent desire to make such periods of inactivity as brief as possible.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR OYAMA.

Entire Front of Japanese Army is Strengthened.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—General Sakharoff has reported to the general staff, under date of Sept. 17, as follows:

"The Manchurian army was nowhere engaged on Sept. 16 or 17.

"The arrival of considerable reinforcements is noticeable at the advance posts along the whole of the enemy's front, and especially near the village of Blaniupuz, and east of the railway toward the Yentai mines."

It is announced from Mukden that both the Russian and the Japanese have promised to respect the tombs and palaces there.

EARLY FIGHTING EXPECTED.

Opposing Armies Recovered From Recent Hard Fighting.

Mukden, Sept. 19.—The armies having recovered from the effects of the recent fighting before Liaoyang, an early development of the situation may be expected. A mysterious movement eastward is on foot on the part of bands of Chinese suitable for military service.

RUSSIANS ARE SKEPTICAL.

Doubt Reports of Japanese Advance Upon Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The reports that General Kuroki is pushing on northeast of Mukden are not borne out by official telegrams that have been received here. According to the latest advice the Japanese forces continue to occupy Blaniupuz and Yentai. A decisive advance in the direction of Mukden is, therefore, not expected to occur for some days. Meanwhile indications increase of the probability of the Japanese meeting with resistance. The Russian forces at Mukden undoubtedly are very large and every day's delay enables the Russian commander-in-chief to perfect his defenses. A telegram from Mukden announces the arrival of an immense train filled with convalescents returning to duty. This may be regarded as good evidence of a large concentration of troops at Mukden.

The same correspondent, describing scenes at Tie pass, notes extraordinary animation there and the fact that theatrical performances and open air concerts are of daily occurrence hardly indicates that the town is expecting an immediate attack.

Dispatches from Vladivostok and Sakhalin, make no mention of developments there. The citizens of Vladivostok scout the idea of a siege and many are returning from their country villas.

The disarming of the Lena at San Francisco is accepted here as having been inevitable in view of the considerable length of time required to repair the vessel's boilers.

The question of the disposal of the Lena's crew is no nearer a solution, so far as the admiralty and the foreign office are concerned, than it has been, both departments being closed on Sunday.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

RUSSIAN PRINCE RELATES TERRIBLE TALES OF FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, Sept. 19.—According to Lieutenant Prince Radzivil of the Russian army who reached here Sunday from Port Arthur, bearing dispatches from General Stoessel, the commander-in-chief of the forces of the Russian stronghold, to General Kuropatkin, the temper of the belligerents at Port Arthur has reached an absolutely merciless stage.

Prince Radzivil served with the British in the Boer war and he says that until he became aware of the state of affairs at Port Arthur he had no idea that war could be so horrible.

It was set forth in these dispatches some weeks ago that serious suspicions were entertained by both belligerents, that the other was misusing the Red Cross flag. These suspicions have been increased by the commission of various acts by the soldiers of both armies, until now even flags of truce or surrender are not respected by either side.

Prince Radzivil declares that the men of both armies are absolutely venomous in their antagonism. General Stoessel has addressed his garrison saying that the present mood of the Japanese indicates clearly the necessity of resisting them to the last drop of Russian blood, because if the Japanese soldiers entered the fortress it undoubtedly would be impossible for their officers to control them and prevent a massacre. For this reason General Stoessel is making no objections to civilians leaving Port Arthur.

In consequence of the fact that flags of truce are ignored, numbers of Japanese dead, who have been lying on the slopes of the hills of the northeast defenses for weeks past, are still unburied and the stench in Port Arthur from decomposing bodies when the wind is in the right direction, is almost unendurable.

Russians Ignore White Flag.

In the course of the assaults which took place in the four last days of August, two companies of Japanese soldiers, according to Prince Radzivil, found themselves at the mercy of the Russians and hoisted a white flag. To this, however, the Russians paid no attention and continued to volley rapidly into the helpless ranks of the enemy. In the meantime Japanese troops in the rear of the companies that had raised the white flag saw what their comrades had done and expressed their disapproval of the surrender by firing into their rear. As a result of this fire from friend and foe, 600 men were annihilated. The dead fell among the decomposing bodies of previous assaults. For days afterward the wounded men in this area raised fluttering handkerchiefs in their hands in pleas for help, but the Russians were afraid to venture out to give succor. Within a week the army had made its last unregarded prayer for help and the shambles was a quiet but ghastly field of horror. Among the heads of dead the prince saw two soldiers, one a Russian and the other a Japanese, lying locked in a death embrace. The teeth of the Japanese were sunk in the Russian's throat while the Russian had forced two of his fingers into the eye sockets of his antagonist.

The prince says the stories in circulation concerning the shortage of ammunition and provisions at Port Arthur are not true. There is an abundance of ammunition for both large and small arms and plenty of preserved food. The use of Chinese shells was merely a saving measure.

Prince Radzivil says one company of Russians were wiped out in an outpost fight and also says the Japanese are using explosive bullets at Port Arthur. The bodies of 2,000 Japanese soldiers, he says, lie between forts No. 2 and 3.

The prince says that a story regarding the attempt of the two Japanese companies to surrender is to the effect that a Japanese battery fired upon the helpless men, who then charged the battery, killing General Nogi and several Japanese gunners. This is not confirmed.

Persistent rumors have been received lately to the effect that a successor to General Nogi has arrived at Port Dally, but this is denied by local Japanese.

DEATH OF BISMARCK

ELDEST SON OF THE IRON CHANCELLOR PASSES AWAY AT FRIEDRICHSRUHE.

THE END WAS NOT PAINFUL.

PRINCE HERBERT PEACEFULLY PASSES FROM LIFE INTO ETERNAL SLEEP.

Friedrichsruhe, Sept. 19.—Prince Herbert Bismarck died Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock. The end was painless.

Since he ceased to be foreign minister on the retirement of his father, in 1890, Prince Herbert Bismarck had taken part in public affairs only as a member of the reichstag. His attitude had been that of a man not appreciated by his sovereign and who was waiting in the background for an opportunity to resume his career. His delivery as a parliamentary speaker improved year by year. He always declined to join any political group, steadfastly calling himself an independent. His haughty and imperious manners in early life, when he was ever conscious of the fact that he was the son of the most powerful statesman in Europe, softened in later life.

Prince Bismarck's father trained him for his chancellorship of the German empire and advanced him rapidly in the diplomatic service until at the age of forty, he was minister of foreign affairs, in which position he took part in nearly every important transaction.

An incident that nearly wrecked Prince Herbert's career and that caused the old chancellor great annoyance was Prince (then count) Herbert's elopement with Princess Carlotte Beuthen, the wife of Prince Karl, the head of that distinguished Silesian house. The princess was of the Hatzfeldt family and young Bismarck at the time was his father's private secretary. Count Herbert lived with the princess in Southern Italy for a few weeks, and then at the command of his father returned to Germany. The princess was afterwards divorced and has since died.

The title of Prince Bismarck and the large fortune of the deceased will go to his seven-year-old son Otto. The late Emperor Frederick gave to Chancellor Bismarck extensive forests at Friedrichsruhe which have since increased in value and the chancellor gave to Prince Herbert $2,400,000 in securities and cash. The estate is now said to be worth $4,000,000, exclusive of the lands.

Prince Bismarck was born in 1819, was the eldest son of the late Prince Otto Bismarck, the great chancellor. His brother William died in 1901. He had only one sister, who is the wife of Count von Rentzau. Prince Herbert leaves five children, two girls and three boys.

JAPANESE SPOILS OF WAR.

Vast Quantities of Stores and Ammunition Taken at Liaoyang.

Tokio, Sept. 19.—Marquis Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese forces in the field, telegraphed Sunday that General Oku had reported having captured 13 prisoners at the battle of Liaoyang. He also gave a detailed list of the Russian stores which General Oku captured as follows:

Thirty horses, 2,288 rifles, 127 ammunition wagons, 5,892 rounds of artillery ammunition, 659,930 small arm cartridges, great quantities of timber, flour, rice, forage engineering implements clothing and accoutrements.

The armies under General Kuroki and Nodzu made no prisoners in the fighting before Liaoyang. General Kuroki captured forty horses, 890 rifles, 300 rounds of artillery and 600,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, telegraph apparatus and various miscellaneous implements.

General Nodzu captured 490 rifles, 1,064 rounds of artillery and 27,880 rounds of rifle ammunition, 3 heliographs, telephones, tools and large quantities of foodstuffs and timber.

General Oku captured sufficient timber to construct railroad depots.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE IN OHIO.

Two Men Probably Fatally Injured by an Explosion.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 19.—During a band concert at the corner of Fairmount and Frank streets Sunday evening, a lead pipe loaded with powder or dynamite was exploded with malicious intent, the police believe, and Pasquale Ferrito and Walter Cox were probably fatally injured. Pasquale's back was torn away and Cox had a leg blown off. Rivalry between two bands of the district is said to be the cause for the ill feeling of the bandmen towards each other.

PASSES THE MILLION MARK.

Attendance at the World's Fair Very Heavy Last Week.

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Last week for the first time in the history of the Louisiana Purchase exposition the attendance for the six days exceeded 1,000,000. The record of the admissions for the week were as follows: Monday, Sept. 12, 112,432; Tuesday, 110,616; Wednesday, 134,642; Thursday, 404,450; Friday, 131,111; Saturday, 143,607. Total, 1,027,918. Total admissions to date are 11,022,430.

SEAL POACHER ARRESTED.

Russians Take an Englishman and Sink His Vessel.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—It is announced from Vladivostok that an English seal poacher named Thomson, who took advantage of the war to make the Pribilof islands his hunting grounds, has been captured and his schooner sunk. Thomson has been imprisoned at Nikolaievsk.

TYPHOID FEVER PREVALENT.

Minnesota State Board of Health Reports Epidemic.

St. Paul, Sept. 19.—The state board of health is investigating numerous typhoid fever outbreaks in various smaller cities of Minnesota.

St. Cloud, Little Falls, Mankato, Crookston, Breckenridge, Albert Lea, Elbow Lake, Elmore and Evelev are reporting the largest number of new cases.

The board claims to have the epidemic under control.

Doubt Reports of Japanese Advance Upon Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The reports that General Kuroki is pushing on northeast of Mukden are not borne out by official telegrams that have been received here. According to the latest advices the Japanese forces continue to occupy Bianpuza and Yentai. A decisive advance in the direction of Mukden is, therefore, not expected to occur for some days. Meanwhile indications increase of the probability of the Japanese meeting with resistance. The Russian forces at Mukden undoubtedly are very large and every day's delay enables the Russian commander-in-chief to perfect his defenses. A telegram from Mukden announces the arrival of an immense train filled with convalescents returning to duty. This may be regarded as good evidence of a large concentration of troops at Mukden.

The same correspondent, describing scenes at Tie pass, notes extraordinary animation there. The great concourse of visitors there and the fact that theatrical performances and open air concerts are of daily occurrence hardly indicates that the town is expecting an immediate attack.

Dispatches from Vladivostok and Sakhalin, make no mention of developments there. The citizens of Vladivostok scout the idea of a siege and many are returning from their country villas.

The disarming of the Lena at San Francisco is accepted here as having been inevitable in view of the considerable length of time required to repair the vessel's boilers.

The question of the disposal of the Lena's crew is no nearer a solution, so far as the admiralty and the foreign office are concerned, than it has been, both departments being closed on Sunday.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

RUSSIAN PRINCE RELATES TERRIBLE TALES OF FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR.

Chefoo, Sept. 19.—According to Lieutenant Prince Radzivil of the Russian army who reached here Sunday from Port Arthur, bearing dispatches from General Stoessel, the commander-in-chief of the forces of the Russian stronghold, to General Kuropatkin, the temper of the belligerents at Port Arthur has reached an absolutely merciless stage.

Prince Radzivil served with the British in the Boer war and he says that until he became aware of the state of affairs at Port Arthur he had no idea that war could be so horrible.

It was set forth in these dispatches some weeks ago that serious suspicions were entertained by both belligerents, that the other was misusing the Red Cross flag. These suspicions have been increased by the commission of various acts by the soldiers of both armies, until now even flags of truce or surrender are not respected by either side.

Prince Radzivil declares that the men of both armies are absolutely venomous in their antagonism. General Stoessel has addressed his garrison saying that the present mood of the Japanese indicates clearly the necessity of resisting them to the last drop of Russian blood, because if the Japanese soldiers entered the fortress it undoubtedly would be impossible for their officers to control them and prevent a massacre. For this reason General Stoessel is making no objections to civilians leaving Port Arthur.

In consequence of the fact that flags of truce are ignored, numbers of Japanese dead, who have been lying on the slopes of the hills of the northeast defenses for weeks past, are still unburied and the stench in Port Arthur from decomposing bodies when the wind is in the right direction, is almost unendurable.

Russians Ignore White Flag.

In the course of the assaults which took place in the four last days of August, two companies of Japanese soldiers, according to Prince Radzivil, found themselves at the mercy of the Russians and hoisted a white flag. To this, however, the Russians paid no attention and continued to volley rapidly into the helpless ranks of the enemy. In the meantime Japanese troops in the rear of the companies that had raised the white flag saw what their comrades had done and expressed their disapproval of the surrender by firing into their rear. As a result of this fire from friend and foe, 600 men were annihilated. The dead fell among the decomposing bodies of previous assaults. For days afterward the wounded men in this area raised fluttering handkerchiefs in their hands in pleas for help, but the Russians were afraid to venture out to give succor. Within a week the army had made its last unregarded prayer for help and the shambles was a ghastly field of horror. Among the heaps of dead the prince saw two soldiers, one a Russian and the other a Japanese, lying locked in a death embrace. The teeth of the Japanese were sunk in the Russian's throat while the Russian had forced two of his fingers into the eye sockets of his antagonist.

The prince says the stories in circulation concerning the shortage of ammunition and provisions at Port Arthur are not true. There is an abundance of ammunition for both large and small arms and plenty of preserved food. The use of Chinese shells was merely a saving measure.

Prince Radzivil says one company of Russians were wiped out in an outpost fight and also says the Japanese are using explosive bullets at Port Arthur. The bodies of 2,600 Japanese soldiers, he says, lie between forts No. 2 and 3.

The prince says that a story regarding the attempt of the two Japanese companies to surrender is to the effect that a Japanese battery fired upon the helpless men, who then charged the battery, killing General Nogi and several Japanese gunners. This is not confirmed.

Persistent rumors have been received lately to the effect that a successor to General Nogi has arrived at Port Dalny, but this is denied by local Japanese.

DEATH OF BISMARCK

ELDEST SON OF THE IRON CHANCELLOR PASSES AWAY AT FRIEDRICHSMUE.

THE END WAS NOT PAINFUL.

PRINCE HERBERT PEACEFULLY PASSES FROM LIFE INTO ETERNAL SLEEP.

Friedrichsmue, Sept. 19.—Prince Herbert Bismarck died Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock. The end was painless.

Since he ceased to be foreign minister on the retirement of his father, in 1890, Prince Herbert Bismarck had taken part in public affairs only as a member of the reichstag. His attitude had been that of a man not appreciated by his sovereign and who was waiting in the background for an opportunity to resume his career.

His delivery as a parliamentary speaker improved year by year. He always declined to join any political group, steadfastly calling himself an independent. His haughty and imperious manners in early life, when he was ever conscious of the fact that he was the son of the most powerful statesman in Europe, softened in later life.

Prince Bismarck's father trained him for his chancellorship of the German empire and advanced him rapidly in the diplomatic service until at the age of forty, he was minister of foreign affairs, in which position he took part in nearly every important transaction.

An incident that nearly wrecked Prince Herbert's career and that caused the old chancellor great annoyance was Prince (then count) Herbert's elopement with Princess Carlotta Beuthen, the wife of Prince Karl, the head of that distinguished Silesian house. The princess was of the Hatzfeldt family and young Bismarck at the time was his father's private secretary. Count Herbert lived with the princess in Southern Italy for a few weeks, and then at the command of his father returned to Germany. The princess was afterwards divorced and has since died.

The title of Prince Bismarck and the large fortune of the deceased will go to his seven-year-old son Otto.

The late Emperor Frederick gave to Chancellor Bismarck extensive forests at Friedrichsmue which have since increased in value and the chancellor gave to Prince Herbert $2,400,000 in securities and cash. The estate is now said to be worth $4,000,000, exclusive of the lands.

Prince Bismarck was born in 1819, was the eldest son of the late Prince Otto Bismarck, the great chancellor. His brother William died in 1901. He had only one sister, who is the wife of Count von Rentau. Prince Herbert leaves five children, two girls and three boys.

JAPANESE SPOILS OF WAR.

Vast Quantities of Stores and Ammunition Taken at Liaoyang.

Tokio, Sept. 19.—Marquis Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese forces in the field, telegraphed Sunday that General Oku had reported having captured 13 prisoners at the battle of Liaoyang. He also gave a detailed list of the Russian stores which General Oku captured as follows:

Thirty horses, 2,288 rifles, 127 ammunition wagons, 5,892 rounds of artillery ammunition, 659,930 small arm cartridges, great quantities of timber, flour, rice, forage engineering implements clothing and accoutrements.

The armies under General Kuroki and Nodzu made no prisoners in the fighting before Liaoyang. General Kuroki captured forty horses, 890 rifles, 300 rounds of artillery and 600,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, telegraph apparatus and various miscellaneous implements.

General Nodzu captured 490 rifles, 1,064 rounds of artillery and 37,880 rounds of rifle ammunition, 3 heliographs, telephones, tools and large quantities of foodstuffs and timber.

General Oku captured sufficient timber to construct railroad depots.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE IN OHIO.

Two Men Probably Fatally Injured by an Explosion.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 19.—During a band concert at the corner of Fairmount and Frank streets Sunday evening, a lead pipe loaded with powder or dynamite was exploded with malicious intent, the police believe, and Pasquale Ferrito and Walter Cox were probably fatally injured. Pasquale's back was torn away and Cox had a leg blown off. Rivalry between two bands of the district is said to be the cause for the ill feeling of the bandsmen towards each other.
